Acabei de ligar para o Matheus. Ele já tem o seu CPF cadastrado no Siscomex, mas está com dificuldades na próxima etapa. Além disso, ele não consegue realizar chamadas de saída devido a problemas com a operadora de telefonia dele. Você poderia ligar para ele, já que ele consegue receber chamadas? O número dele é +55 73 99109-0002

Yes, black King has been registered with siscomex before

Matheus's company accountant for black king was handling the issue of the paperwork for prior exports we were using when we were doing via Correios last year and year before

His accountant usually takes a long time with delays up to at least a month or two.

If you can take over that part of the process it will be very helpful. This will remove unnecessary delays along our critical path.

Hello Gary, good afternoon!

The shipment you mentioned, we're already their Customs Broker with registered POA at Brazilian's system, and with defined customs service value fixed.

For this new shipment, different Exporter company, we don't have any POA and registration at Customs system and/or customs service value fixed with them. Our Sales team made an introducing and we started to follow. So at this moment is pending:

- If the cargo ready for shipment and/or when it will be ready;
- If the Shipper is right registered at Brazilian's customs as an Exporter Company;
- If they do have already a nominated a Customs Broker in Brazil or if they are willing to use our services for Customs Clearance.

Isis, could you please ask your colleagues

They handled the customs clearance for our cacao exports out of Brazil to USA back in 2023. Omega services and SeaCoast logistics were the only companies involved in the entire transaction

The only reason why this current situation is difference would be if the company has stopped handling customs clearance

We are doing the import customs clearance in the US, however the shipper does need to use a customs broker in Brazil for their export customs clearance.
