Good afternoon Lyra and Hillary,

This is Gary from the Agroverse community project to restore 10,000 hectares of Amazon rainforest. 🙏🏻

We spoke briefly during the Natural Products Expo. Hope things are settling down after the very lively week in Anaheim.

I wanted to briefly touch base to share how we track the single estate cacao sourced from the Brazilian Amazon rainforest to the ceremonial bars we place in the hands of community supporters here in the USA, Europe and China and how we tie each bar purchase to the planting of a tree.

This Instagram Reel shows the end-to-end process our community has been running.

This is the publicly accessible dashboard we use to track financing raised for rainforest restoration through cacao sales via our community outreach.

Happy to share more details if you are keen to dive into the nuts and bolts.

Have a wonderful week ahead.

Warm regards

Hi, Gary -

It was an absolute pleasure to meet you at Expo West.

I love what you are doing with Agroverse - it's so inspiring.

I'll review with Lyra and the team and get back to you!
