Hi Jessica,

I hope this finds you well.

I stopped by Yarrow & Sage – North today and left some ceremonial cacao samples and cacao tea with Cole. He suggested I reach out to you directly.

The ceremonial cacao is from Oscar's Farm in Bahia, Brazil—you can read more here: <https://agroverse.shop/farms/oscar-bahia/index.html>.

The cacao tea is from Paulo's La do Sitio Farm in Pará: <https://agroverse.shop/farms/paulo-la-do-sitio-para/index.html>. Each farm has a unique taste profile, and we support several farms across the Brazilian Amazon.

I wanted to follow up to see if you might be interested in carrying our products. We'd be happy to deliver 5 bags of ceremonial cacao to start with, on the same consignment arrangement we have with other stores. We also offer cacao tea on wholesale.

We work with regenerative cacao farms in the Brazilian Amazon, and each bag sold helps plant a tree as part of our mission to restore 10,000 hectares of rainforest.

I'd be happy to set up a short call to answer any questions and discuss how we could work together.

Best regards,
Gary
